The War Department last night issued the following statement in today to vote for the President refutation of charges that it was nefficient, extravagant and wasteful during the war.

"The War Department has saved over $4.675.342.881.15 to the taxpay-ers of this country through the sale of surplus war supplies and settlements of claims. Because of the numerous erroneous reports which have appeared of late in the public press regarding loss to the government through alleged inefficiency of the War Department, the following the War Department, the following statement is issued to correct these unfounded reports.
